

Kids Theatre Project Information

2023 Show: How the West Was Really One

Who Can Register:

Kids 9 -14 years of age. No experience needed! Space is limited. KTP participants will be cast in lead and supporting roles for the show.

Workshop Schedule: June 12th-16th, 2023: Monday through Thursday from 12:30-3:00pm and Friday 12:30-4:00pm at the studio for scene work, backstage work, costume and prop construction.

What to expect:

- Two weeks before the workshop (May 29th) we will email you the script and casting. Please contact us via the website "Contact Us" if you do not receive your email by May 29th at 12pm.
- Participants are expected to have their lines memorized before we start the workshop. We will jump right in with setting the show and creating costumes and props on Monday, June 12th.
- We use every available space at the studio, so there is not a place for parents to stay and observe. Parents will check in and check out their students each day.
*Note: New situations can be scary for kids. If a parent needs to stick around the first day until your child is comfortable, that is okay with us. We ask that there be no additional siblings present.

What to wear for the Workshop: Comfortable clothes that kids can move in and CLOSED toe shoes. No sandals or flip flops.

What to bring to the Workshop: Your script with your name on it, a water bottle with your name on it, and snacks with your name on the container.

Costume Supplies:

KTP focuses on all aspects of "creating" an entire show, which will include costumes. We will send out a list of "basics" along with your script and casting on May 29th, which will list what each participant will need to provide for themselves. Items will normally be things you can find in your closet or at Goodwill. Additional pieces and accessories will be made during our workshops.

Shows:

We will be presenting our completed shows on Friday, June 16th at 2pm and 3pm, (4pm if needed). Tickets are $15 and can be purchased on the elite website's SHOWS page beginning June 12th, 2023.
